As children were playing about the fountain in the park at St. Albans on Monday, one child fell in and had gone down at least once when James W. Cady, who happened to be sitting in the park, became aware of the accident and jumped in after the lad, who will live, although he was in a serious condition when rescued.

H. P. Sheldon has given permission to T. C. Giddings of Fairfax to retain a fawn which recently followed him to his home. Mr. Giddings found the fawn in a field and after taking it home the animal was fed and seemed to be contented with its surroundings, so that it will be kept as a pet so long as the fish and game commissioner thinks it advisable. One was similarly kept in Montpelier some years ago.

Adelbert Peters, young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Peters of St. Johnsbury, narrowly escaped death Friday when he caught onto an automobile to ride home from school and was dragged 50 feet when he attempted to jump off. After being refused permission to ride in the automobile, he caught onto the running board and in getting off the belt of his coat caught and held him until, in going over a bump in the road, the belt threw the youngster free from the machine. The driver did not know the boy was on the car.

Principal Raymond McFarland announces the election of Miss Millicent L. Swaffield, industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A., at Holyoke, Mass., as lady principal and head of the music department of Vermont academy. For instructor in the violin and other orchestral parts Miss Hannah W. Gove of Bellows Falls, has been selected. Miss Gove has had wide experience in organizing and conducting orchestras, having appeared in orchestral concerts in most of the larger cities of the country and the eastern provinces of Canada.

Commencement Time

(Copyright)

By the senior class Monday night, June 13, are: "The Workhouse Ward," by Lady Gregory; "The Valiant," by Holworthy Hall; "Riders to the Sea," by John Synge, and "A Gala Dress," by Mary E. Wilkins. As these are all modern plays, it has been necessary to secure permission to give them to their authors or their managers.

WHEREAS, said court has assigned the 10th day of June next for examining and allowing the account of the administrator of the estate of said deceased, and of the estate of said deceased, and of a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at City of Barre, in said district;

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear at the probate office in Montpelier, in said district, on the day assigned, and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand this 24th day of May, 1921.
